

Community Connector

Name: _____ Date: _____

Title of Book: _____ Author: _____

Chapters or Page Numbers: _____ Literature Circle Name: _____

Directions: Your job is to find connections between the book and you, and between the book and the real world (past or present). You could also connect the reading to other literature, music, art, or media.

Consider this list when trying to make your connections:

- Your own past experiences
- Events at school or in your community
- Current events
- Other people or problems this reminded you of
- Other books or writing this reminded you of

Be prepared to share this with your Literature Circle group!
